Set Up Suggestions

This Reflection and Observation Journal is ideal for any teacher or student teacher! A wide variety of templates and organizational tools are provided to allow you to customize your journal as you see fit.

This product is highly in support of Robert Marzano's Domain 3: Reflecting on Teaching/Evaluating Personal Performance

I hope that this product will provide a "home" for you to collect your teaching memories, reflect on best instructional practices, learn through observation, and grow in your dedication to the teaching profession.

Make enough copies of the provided templates to last for at least one school year. The pages that follow are in suggested order.

Option 1: Print pages and glue into a standard-sized composition notebook. Tape or glue divider tabs onto the edges of the matching dividers.

Option 2: Print cover onto cardstock and use cardstock for the back cover as well. Stack copied pages inside and bind booklet on the left edge. Tape or glue divider tabs onto the edges of the matching dividers.
